

M & T Glass - Privacy Statement

M & T Glass values you as a client and takes your personal privacy seriously. As such, we would like to inform you of our policies for collecting, using, securing, and disclosing nonpublic personal information to third parties. Our principles for protecting your personal information are based on the Canadian Standards Association Model Code as set out in Canada's Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA).

What is personal information?

It is information about an identifiable individual and can include an individual's name, address, phone number, e-mail address, education, employment history, identification numbers, income, credit and loan records. It does not include the name, title, business address, or business telephone number of an employee of an organization.

What does your privacy mean to us?

Our Privacy Code describes the principles M & T Glass will use to protect the privacy of personal information in its possession or control. This Privacy Code does not apply to information about business clients who carry on business as corporations, partnerships, or in other forms of association. M & T Glass does, however, protect the confidentiality of such information in accordance with the law and M & T Glass' own policies. This Privacy Code does apply to information about business clients carrying on business in sole proprietorships.

We keep your personal information and the business you do with us in strict confidence;

You have control over how we obtain, use, and give out information about you;

Your personal information is not sold;

You have access to the information we have about you; and

We respect your privacy when we market our products and services.

Why do we collect your personal information?

Personal information can only be used for the purposes for which it was collected.

We collect and use your personal information to develop, offer, and manage the various products and services provided by our company; to detect and prevent fraud, and to help safeguard the financial interests of M & T Glass and its clients; to meet legal and regulatory requirements; and to meet personnel requirements. We only collect and use personal information that we believe is necessary for the purposes indicated to you, either before or at the time the information is collected.

Who has access your information?

Only authorized employees and officers of M & T Glass that need to see this information to provide services to you have direct access to this information. We never sell your information or disclose it to anyone else without your prior consent, unless we are legally obligated to do so.

What are our safeguards for protecting your information?

Our security safeguards protect your personal information against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, use, copying, modification, disclosure, or disposal. M & T Glass protects personal information regardless of the format in which it is held.

How do you gain access and verify your personal information?

Upon written notice to M & T Glass you may check your personal information on file to: verify it, challenge its accuracy and completeness, update, and correct it, and to have any obsolete information removed. You can expect that it will take 30 days for us to gather the information and you will be advised of any cost associated with providing you with a copy of your personal information record.

How do you contact us?
